STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1907.

NO. 78.

THE VANISHED DAYS.

Lay the jest about the julep in the camphor balls at last
For the miracle has happened and the olden days are past;
That which makes Milwaukee thirsty does not foam in Tennessee
And the lid in old Missouri is as tight-locked as can be.
Oh, the comic paper colonel and his cronies well may sigh,
For the mint is waving gaily, for the South is going dry.
By the stillside on the hillside in Kentucky all is still,
For the only damp refreshment must be dipped up from the rill;
No'th C'lina, stately ruler, gives his soda glass a shove
And discusses local option with the South C'lina gov.
It is useless at the fountain to be wink-ful of the eye
For the cocktail glass is dusty, for the South is going dry.
It is water, water everywhere and not a drop to drink,
We no longer hear the music of the mel-low crystal clink;
When the Colonel and the Major and the Gen'l and the Jedge
Meet to have a little nip to give their appetites an edge;
For the eggnog now is noggless and the rye has gone nry,
And the punch-bowl holds carnations, for the South is going dry.
For the night caps now have tassels and are worn upon the head
Not the nightcaps that were taken when nobody went to bed;
And the breeze above the Blue-grass is as solemn as the death,
For it bears no pungent clove-tang, on its odorific breath;
And each man can walk a chalkline when the stars are in the sky,
For the fizz glass now is fizzless, for the South is going dry.
Lay the jest above the julep 'neath the chestnut tree at last
For there's but one kind of moonshine and the olden days are past;
For the water wagon rumbles through the Southland on its trip
And it helps no one to drop off to pick up the driver's whip.
For the mint-bed makes a pasture and the corkscrew hangeth high;
All is still along the stillside, for the South is going dry.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Full details of the work done on the Panama canal during the fiscal year 1907, with a showing of what has been accomplished since the project has been in American hands, are disclosed in the annual report of the Isthmian Canal Commission. Aside from the $50,000,000 paid to the French company and to Panama, an aggregate of $48,285,110 has been expended on the project adopted by Congress, and which, it is estimated by the Board of Consulting Engineers, should ultimately cost $139,705,209.

Biliousness And Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally."—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

The motion to dissolve the temporary restraining order granted by Judge Miller, of Louisville, against Sheriff A. Scott Bullitt, of Jefferson county, to prevent the execution of Clarence Sturgeon, the triple murderer, was dissolved by the Court of Appeals, the opinion being by Judge Barker, with the whole court sitting. It was held by the court that it was not the duty of the judiciary to fix a date for executions after the original date fixed by the court had passed by reason of an appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Another treat is in store for lovers of high class entertainment on the above mentioned date.

IN a lengthy write up of the entertainment given by the Mountain Trio at Lancaster, Ohio, the Daily Eagle adds: "The principal feature of the excellent program, however, was the exquisite performance on the violin by Mr. Pallas Brown, who, though quite youthful, is the most skilled violinist that ever appeared before a Lancaster audience. The quality of tone he brings from his instrument is a revelation and it reaches the souls of his hearers. His skill is almost marvelous." HAS Hon. Ben B. King experienced a change of heart? He told several people that if Hon. W. H. Shanks defeated him one vote in the race for Representative that his election would be settled as far as he was concerned.

Mr. Shanks' majority was 141 and notwithstanding this Mr. King has had notice of contest served on him. We do not know Mr. King's grounds for contest and believe he has no just reason for his effort to take from him the seat the people elected Mr. Shanks to fill. We have no earthly fear of the result, knowing that Mr. Shanks was elected and having confidence in the tribunal before which the case will be tried. We confess to a little surprise and some disappointment in Mr. King, however. First place we believed him a man of too much good "hoss sense" to take such a step and secondly we did not think him a covetous man. Trying to take that which belongs to another is not in keeping with the high class gentleman we have always considered Mr. King and we are constrained to the belief that he has either been misinformed, misled or miserably misguided. He hasn't a ghost of a show to win and for his own sake and for that alone, we hope he will think before he goes further into the contest.

LYNN.—As briefly stated in our Tuesday's issue, Mr. John G. Lynn died Monday afternoon after a short illness. Had he lived until to-day he would have been 59 years old. The funeral took place at the late home at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when Revs. R. R. Noel and J. Murray Taylor made appropriate talks. The immense throng that had gathered to pay respects to the good citizen and neighbor followed the remains to Buffalo Springs cemetery, where all that was mortal of the kind husband and indulgent father was laid to rest. Mr. Lynn is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. Lucie Wood, Mrs. E. Thomas Pence and Miss Katherine Lynn and in their great loss they have unbounded sympathy. Deceased had long been a member of the Baptist church and Lincoln county had few if any more honorable and upright men. May his splendid life be an inspiration to the young men of his neighborhood. Mr. Lynn was a twin brother of Mr. James E. Lynn. Since the above was put in type Mr. James E. Lynn has gone the way of all good. His death occurred at about 10:30 yesterday morning. What we have said about Mr. John Lynn can also be said of Mr. James Lynn. They were alike in person, alike in ways and alike in good citizenship. Truly can it be said that two better men never lived in this section. The latter gentleman had been ill for a long time and death must have been a sweet relief. He leaves a wife and five children, viz: Mrs. J. E. Claunch, of Somerset, Mrs. W. Logan Wood, of Danville, Mrs. J. M. Mount, of Rocky Mount, N. C., and Messrs. Jesse C. Lynn, of this place, and John G. Lynn, of the West End. In their sorrow great sympathy is felt for them. Mr. James Lynn was a member of the Methodist church and was a regular attendant of that church until his health gave away.

THE Stanford Water, Light & Ice Co. is furnishing fine arc and incandescent light and an abundance of it these long, dark nights. When it is necessary the incandescents burn from 3:30 P. M. to 7:30 A. M. Manager Rout proposes to please his patrons if he has to run the lights 24 hours per day.

MR. A. C. DUNN, of Lincoln county, is a candidate for Doorkeeper of the House. He held the position session before last with great credit and his many friends are anxious that he should be again honored. He is a wheel-horse democrat in his section, and always helps the party to victory. His selection would please a large number of democrats from all parts of the State. —Frankfort Journal.

THIS open session given at the Graded School Wednesday afternoon was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. Some 50 or more of the children took part and all did well. The program, which lasted for 1½ hours, consisted of choruses, solos, recitations, etc., and Prof. Ireland and his splendid corps of teachers have a right to feel good over the way their pupils acquitted themselves. At the College from 1 to 2 the first grade, Miss Annie McKinney teacher, entertained a well-filled chapel of friends and patrons of the school.

ONE of the newly elected councilmen asked us yesterday why we did not insist on the old council cleaning out the blind tigers instead of waiting for the new one to do so. Had he read these columns he would have known that we have appealed to the old board as well as the Law and Order League repeatedly to stamp out the illegal sale of whisky. Neither the board nor the League responded and that was one of the many reasons that made us support other men for councilmen. The old board would do nothing; we hope better of the new. We honestly believe that Chief of Police Jones has tried to break up whisky selling, but that he has failed to do so, even he can not deny. He does not ask for the office again and we are glad of it. His successor will be chosen by the new council. Let that body select an alert, active, honorable man who will see to it that the laws are upheld, it matters not who is helped or hurt. There is abundant material for a good marshal. Let us have such.

Lingering Cold.
Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. C. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very harsh and dry. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by all Druggists.

In retaliation for a reduction in wages from 15 to 12 1/2 cents per hour, the foreign laborers employed at the Hoosier quarries near Bedford, Ind., had two and one-half inches cut from their shovels to meet the corresponding decrease, saying short money, short shovels. As a result the incident makes one of the most peculiar situations ever known in the stone district.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. G. L. Penny.

The Liverpool, Eng., Courier is authority for the statement that the profit from a single voyage of the Lusitania is $66,000. The expenditures are estimated at $89,950. The revenue from one trip must, therefore, amount to $155,950.

This is Worth Remembering.

As no one is immune, every person should remember that Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine.

Dancing Proves Fatal.

Many men and women catch colds at dances which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure, if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken it will break up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Refuse any but the

"What you want, sir," said the bar-

"What I want," rejoined the customer, sadly, "is a divorce."

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.
If your back aches or is weak, if you have acids, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—in Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell.

Mark this Distinction

ITS the wish and ability of the maker that marks the difference between stylish clothing made to serve, and common kinds made to sell.

It's through more effort, experience,
newer methods and better work,
that Ederheimer, Stein & Co.
get the results that distinguish their garments from the ordinary.
There is individuality and style in this make, a greater measure of consistent value, the sort of workmanship that produces perfect fit and the certainty of correct appearance.

And it's our policy of discrimination,
selection and sale of such clothing that makes this the real, live Young Men's store. Come and be fitted.
